

WSH Workshop for Senior Management

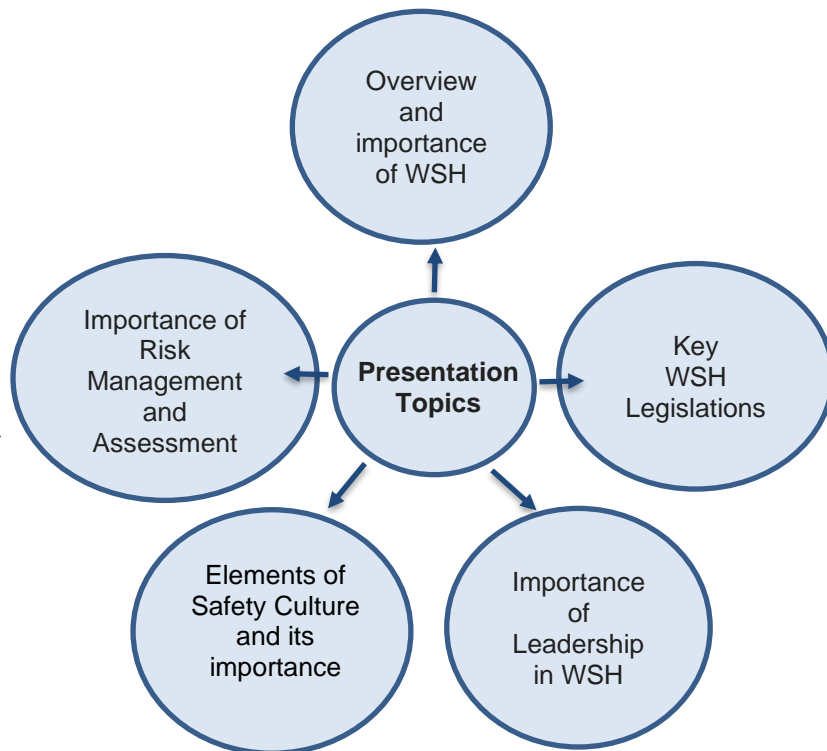

Synopsis

This workshop aims to provide management and senior management staff with a deeper understanding of workplace safety and health (WSH) requirements and legislations, and their roles and responsibilities in ensuring the safety, health and well-being of their employees.

Objectives

At the end of this workshop, participants will be better equipped to manage the WSH function in their organisations. The workshop will:

- provide an overview of the importance of workplace safety & health
- provide an understanding of the WSH Act and related legislations
- highlight their roles and responsibilities and the importance of leadership and commitment
- introduce risk management and safety culture

Who should attend

Corporate Managers & Executives, Department Managers, and other management staff interested in understanding the WSH legislations and their responsibilities with regards to workplace safety and health.

Trainers

Our trainers are well-qualified professionals with extensive knowledge and experience from different industries.
